St. James's, May 16.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted from Ireland to the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, were, in his Lordſhip's Abſence, preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Gentlemen, Freeholders of the County of Weſtmeath.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the County and Town of Carricktergus.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, May 8. A Guard of 20 Men of the Garriſon of this City, is placed at the Gate of the Houſe where Ibrahim Aga the Turkiſh Envoy is lodged, to prevent his being incommoded from the Curioſity of great Numbers of People, who otherwiſe would preſs in to ſee him. He is allowed for his Subſiſtance 85 German Florins a Day. 'Tis ſaid he will not have his Audience of Prince Eugene of Savoy before the End of this Week; and that the Court will delay his Departure from hence as long as poſſible, in order to ſecure M. Fleiſchman (the Emperor's Reſident with the Port) from an Inſult, in caſe Hoſtilities ſhould be begun on our Frontiers before he has Notice to retire. The Empreſs Dowager Amalia, with the two young Archdutcheſſes her Daughters, made a Viſit Yeſterday to the Emperor and Empreſs at Laxembourg. They were received with great Ceremony, and dined with their Imperial Majeſties in the Apartment of the Empreſs, who gave the upper Hand to the Empreſs Amalia. After which their Imperial Majeſties took the Diverſion of Hunting; And the Elector of Trier arriving at Laxembourg at 6 in the Evening, went and met their Majeſties as they were returning from Hunting. His Electoral Highneſs is lodged in the Caſtle of Laxembourg with the Gentlemen of his Court, and ſuch of his Houſehold as are neceſſary about his Perſon; the reſt of his Domeſticks are lodged in the Villages adjacent to that Seat and to this City. 'Tis talked at Court, that the Elector Palatine is expected here very ſhortly. The Imperial Cuiraſſiers of Schelling, which is one of the fineſt Regiments among the Emperor's Forces, has received Orders, as have alſo ſome others as well Horſe as Foot, to hold themſelves in a Readineſs to march, without its being certainly known whither; but 'tis ſuppoſed it will be towards the Frontier of Sileſia, there to form a Body of 4000 Men, who may obſerve the Motions of the Swedes, in caſe they ſhould attempt to penetrate into Poland, or to diſturb the Peace of the Empire. General Wackerbaart went this Day to Laxembourg with Prince Eugene, having received Orders to ſet out Poſt in 4 or 5 Days to go and take upon him the Command of the Saxon Forces which are marched to the Pruſſian Camp near Stetin.

Ratisbon, May 13. On the 10th Inſtant the Dyet took into Conſideration the Means of repairing and providing the Fortreſſes of Kehl and Philipsbourg at the common Expence of the Empire. General Roht in a Letter of the 6th Inſtant has given Notice, that the high Waters of the Rhine have worn away already part of the Dam and Glacis at Kehl, and that the Counterſcarp would be in Danger, if not prevented by timely Repair, to which end he demands a ſpeedy ſupply of Money. The Imperial Commiſſioner Prince Lowenſtein is not yet arrived, being detained at Vienna by his private Affairs. Count Furſtemberg, who has been employed by the Emperour for ſome Years in the Upper Circles, went thro' this Place laſt Week for Vienna, being named a principal Judge or chief Officer of the Imperial Chamber at Wetzlar.

Stetin, May 13. The Marquis de Croiſſi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of France, had Audience of the King of Pruſſia on the 9th Inſtant in the Camp, and delivered two Letters to his Majeſty: On the 12th that Miniſter ſet out for Stralſund. 'Tis affirmed that his Pruſſian Majeſty has declared he will wait till the 20th Inſtant the King of Sweden's Reſolution on certain Terms of Accommodation, which the Marquis de Croiſſi is to propoſe to him; and in the mean time the March of the Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau, with a Body of Pruſſians in order to diſlodge the Swedes from the Iſland of Uſedom, is ſuſpended: All the Saxons from Lubben have joyned the Pruſſian Army.

Hague, May 21. The States of this Province of Holland and Weſtfriſeland adjourned themſelves on the 18th to this Day, and accordingly they met again this Morning. The Men of War which are to form the Dutch Squadron deſigned for the Baltick, are to rendezvous in the Texel to Morrow; Rear-Admiral de Veth is appointed to command it, and 'tis ſaid he has Orders to make directly to the Kattegat near the Sound, there to meet and join the Britiſh Squadron, to proceed with them into that Sea, and to aſſiſt in ſeeing the Merchant Ships of both Nations bound for the Places there now in the Poſſeſſion of the Muſcovites ſafe into their reſpective Ports. The young Princeſs Carolina Daughter of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, continues in very good Health: The Ladies of her Court will be treated to Night by Mrs. Cadogan: Her Highneſs waits only for a fair Wind to imbark at Rotterdam for England, her own and her Retinue's Baggage having been ſent Yeſterday on board the Yatchts. Prince Kurakin, Miniſter of the Czar of Muſcovy, went from hence this Evening to paſs over to England in the Packet-boat. The Biſhop of Munſter having for ſome Years kept a Garriſon of his own Troops in Bentheim, the Count of that Name has lately repreſented to the States General, that thoſe Troops are very burthenſom to the Inhabitants, that the former Biſhop of Munſter had promiſed to withdraw that Garriſon, and therefore deſires them to uſe ſuch Inſtances as may prevail with the preſent Prelate of that See to withdraw the ſame, the rather becauſe that Place is ſituate on the Frontiers of the Province of Over-Yſſel: Their High Mightineſſes have ſent this Remonſtrance to their Deputies at Antwerp, with order to preſs Count Koningſeck to uſe his good Offices to the End the ſaid Troops of Munſter may be now withdrawn, Edinburgh, May 6. On the 4th Inſtant the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland met here, and choſe for their Moderator Mr. William Carſtares one of his Majeſty's Chaplains. His Majeſty's Commiſſion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes was read, as was likewiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to the Aſſembly. His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner made a Speech to the Aſſembly, which was anſwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anſwer to his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, which being reported this Day was unanimouſly approved and preſented to the high Commiſſioner to be tranſmitted to his Majeſty.

Edinburgh, May 9. Mr. James Maitland Miniſter of Innerkethnie, and his Brother Mr. John Maitland Miniſter of Forgue, having been ſuſpended by the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen for not obſerving the 20th of January laſt as the Day of Thankſgiving for his Majeſty King George's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, and for not praying for his Majeſty by Name, they did appeal from the ſaid Synod to the General Aſſembly: Who having conſidered
